PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS BY TICKING OFF ONLY ONE OF THE ANSWERS

Why do you want to admit your child to Ann Mary School?

Friend's and/or relative's children study there (Name them)
We appreciate and share the educational approach of the school.
It is near our residence.
We could not get admission elsewhere.
Other reasons being mentioned on a separate sheet.

What do you expect from school?

High percentage of marks in the examination.
Quick progress and speed in learning.
Sit in one place and learn with books.
Personality development.
A balanced all sided education.
Other aspects are being mentioned on a separate sheet of paper.

How often do you think homework should be given?

Everyday
As little as possible
Never
As much as necessary

What do you think of your child playing?

Waste of time.
As important to a child's growth as studies.
Useful only during free time.
Most important thing for children.

How do you define parents role in the context of school education?

Pay the fees and leave every thing else up to the school.
Cooperation and dialog with the school is necessary.
Build up at home what the child learns at school.

Would you allow your son/daughter to drive to school on a motorised two wheeler?

Yes, if it is legal.
Never, because it is too dangerous
No, because it is environmentally damaging
No, because it is healthier to walk or cycle to school

What would you do if your child is not selected for admission?

Try again next year.
Pressurize the Principal through politically or bureaucratically powerful people.
Spread rumours about school.
Wait till the school can offer my child a place.

Does your child suffer from any chronic ailment or genetic disorder Or Any other Medical Problem

No.
If Yes. Which one? (give details)
